

Henry Wernars
Chief Financial Officer

Henry brings nearly 20 years of financial management and planning experience in manufacturing, distribution, and service-related corporations, to FaceFile. His ability to transform mediocre performing companies into sustainable businesses with long-term profitability has become Henry's signature formula for financial success.

With experience in both public and private sectors, Henry's ability to propel companies into financial superstars is a tremendous asset for Face File. He served as the CFO for Colomer USA, a global leader in the beauty and grooming business, where he managed 17 divisions with revenue over a $250 million. Previously, Henry was the controller for American Crew. During his tenure, the company grew from an $8 million operation to over $75 million. He also transformed a small division of Revlon with over a decade of financial losses into a long-term and highly sustainable business.

Henry's expertise in acquisitions, mergers, strategic planning, cash flow, and financial management will be critical to the growth and success of FaceFile.
